<sup>1</sup> The Compliance Fee is a one-time fee for onboarding an account; once a customer has opened one Personal Account type, there is no compliance fee for additional Personal Accounts.

<sup>2</sup> This fee will be charged when the account balance is less than the required amount (see Minimum Opening Balance) It is charged once per month until the minimum balance is restored.

<sup>3</sup> This fee is charged and debited from the account upon re-activation after the account moves to inactive status due to a lack of activity. If the account holder chooses not to re-activate, then see Account Closure fee.

<sup>4</sup> Including but not limited to: certification letters, certification of account confirmation, letter of good standing, or other documents involving legal representation.

<sup>6</sup> An internal transfer between two DIB clients, must be in same currency (e.g. USD to USD)

<sup>7</sup> An internal transfer between two accounts of the same DIB client, must be under same account holder (e.g. Transfer from Deposit to Savings)
